TRAVELLING AROUND EUROPE

An important part of travelling is knowing what places to visit, and also you need to know how to move from place to place. Transportation is fundamental. Sometimes, you can just buy a bus ticket. Easy! You buy the ticket, you get on the bus and then you get off the bus. In other cases, you need to book in advance. Anyway, you need to know how buses system works. In Europe, the rail system is really good, and they are easy to hop on and hop off. Many travelers prefer trains, because they feel that they can enjoy the landscapes. You can move between countries in some cases, like from France to Spain. Airplanes are always going to be a quick option, but sometimes they are too expensive. Also, sometimes cheap tickets include airports that are far from major cities, and you MUST use an additional transportation.

Boats and ferries are used to transport people across rivers or short stretches of sea. They are not used for long distances. Can you imagine why? Finally, if you are old enough to drive and you have a driver license, you can rent a car in many European countries. If you are going to travel, look carefully for the transportation alternatives that you will find.

Activity#3: Observe and answer: What transportation can you use? Observa el mapa y responde, ¿Qué transporte puedo usar?

To move from A to F		_____

To move from B to D		_____

Realiza un "Itinerario" para impulsar un tour en Rancagua.

Considera los 5 elementos más importantes que se deben tener para este "tour regional" y menciona por lo menos 8 lugares que deberíamos visitar y organiza este trabajo para 3 días de viaje (COMO TOUR DE FIN DE SEMANA)

Haz tu itinerario Español, luego en inglés (utilizando verbos simples: Ir a , Visitar, Conocer, Comer en, recorrer...), en una hoja del cuaderno, con dibujos y que quede claro cómo organizarás el tour por nuestra ciudad, pequeños dibujos de las actividades que se pueden hacer y considera costos también. Apóyate de la página 73 del texto para saber cómo hacer tu itinerario o bien indaga en un formato simple y lo realizas de forma muy creativa. (Apóyate de los puntos de referencia)

Ejemplo: indaga otros lugares
